

FOR OUR WEDDING PARTY GROOMSMEN

Gentlemen,

Karie and I are ecstatic to see you all soon in Los Angeles, on our new home turf! Since this weekend will be busy with both wedding activities and many out of town guests, we wanted to prepare this simple wedding itinerary for you in advance that will let you know what's happening each day and when and where you're needed. Keep a copy handy and you'll look like you know what time it is, all the time. We look forward to seeing you all next weekend, and thanks for being our special guests and court in marriage...we love you guys.
